

Job Title: Portable Wall Lead

Reports to: Portable Wall Manager

Job Purpose

Portable Wall events are off-site events. They utilize rock climbing walls attached to a truck and trailer, providing unique and fun climbing opportunities otherwise inaccessible. The staff in charge of the Portable Wall work as a duo. This duo is comprised of a “P-wall Lead” staff and a “P-wall Co” staff. The “P-wall Lead” staff carry higher responsibilities and act as a type of ambassador for Adventure Rock.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Making sure the truck and gear is packed out properly, filled with gas, and in good repair before each event in accordance with the “pre-flight check list”
- Safely driving the truck and trailer to the site location
- Communicating with the event coordinator about the event details in a professional and helpful manner
- Setting up the wall and organizing both Adventure Rock staff and any event volunteers that may be helping
- Performing inspections of the walls, auto belays, and harnesses
- Generating enthusiasm while harnessing participants and handing out marketing material
- Collecting payments and thoroughly completing follow up paper work

Qualifications

- Must be 18 year of age or older
- Have a valid driver’s license
- Ability to drive a truck and trailer proficiently
- Basic understanding of one-on-one and group instruction
- Ability to speak to groups and direct crowds
- Desire and enthusiasm to inform customers about membership and class options

Working Conditions

Portable Wall Shifts are subject to the specific events reservation. Portable Wall Lead Staff are responsible for arriving 15-30 minutes prior to the departure time to ensure the truck and walls are ready for the event. Portable Wall events run for a minimum of 3 hours. Reservations are only cancelled due to severe weather. Being comfortable in rain, wind, and sun is important. All Portable Wall Staff are required to wear the “Black Adventure Rock Instructor” T-Shirts for every shift. Portable Wall Staff may be asked to assist with a myriad of other tasks related to the operation of Adventure Rock at anytime.

Physical Requirements

Portable Lead Staff will occasionally have to address issues on the portable walls as well as the trucks. This will require being comfortable lifting, pulling, and moving heavy objects or objects under tension. Sometimes up to 50lbs

Compensation

Starts at $15/hr. Adventure Rock Membership is included for the duration of employment.
